MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. Edward Clark, secretary to the Governor, appeared at the bar of the House, and, being duly announced, presented the following message from the Governor, which was read to the House, as follows:

Executive Office,
Austin, Texas, January 25, 1935.

To the Members of the House of the Forty-fourth Legislature:

I respectfully direct your attention to H. S. R. No. —, by Mr. Petsch, calling for an investigation by a committee of the House of the condition of the Permanent School Fund of this State.

It is my judgment that some character of legislative investigation of this matter should be had. Such investigation would not only disclose the present condition of the Permanent School Fund, and the manner in which it has been administered, but would afford the basis for any needed legislation.

I do not advocate the adoption of a resolution in any particular form. I simply think the facts should be sifted and the truth ascertained as to the averments made in the resolution. Certainly no harm could come from a disclosure of all the facts.

I note that the resolution presented calls for the employment of such "auditors" as may be necessary. It occurs to me that the State Auditor's Department could be called upon to furnish competent help under the direction of the committee. The investigation, therefore, should not entail very great expense.

I respectfully urge the adoption of this, or some similar, resolution.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES V. ALLRED,
Governor of Texas.

Reasons for Vote

I voted "no" on Senate Bills Nos. 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 98, and 99, for the reason that all those bills provide that certain bonds, notes and mortgages of the National Housing Act may be made the basis of investments, or taken as securities for certain funds of the State of Texas, county funds, city funds, life insurance, saving deposits, widows', orphans' and other sacred funds.

I deem these funds not to be properly secured by such securities as offered under the National Housing Act.

The Government only guarantees about twenty per cent of the face value of these securities, and that is not sufficient, in my estimation, when I know that the real estate in many cases back behind these securities of the National Housing Act will not be sufficiently valuable as investments for these sacred funds.

I further voted "no" on all these bills for the reason that they give the banking interests of this country a death hold on the homes of thousands of the people, and many of them will be foreclosed on and their homes taken away.

My only consolation may be that of the ancient prophetess, but with Cassandra, I will be able to say, "I told you so."

However, that will bring no consolation to those that suffer.

We rushed these eight bills through in less than ninety minutes and outdid Huey Long. Many of the members had not read these bills, and they were not carefully considered. They originated in my home city of Fort Worth, and I know what is behind them. I hope the members will be as anxious and zealous in the future to pass the old age amendment and bill, and the homestead amendment, relieving all homesteads from all taxation. We have now done plenty for the bankers, and we ought to do something for the "common people."

FARMER.

I voted against these bills for the same reasons.

FITZWATER.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1 ON SECOND READING

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 1, A bill to be entitled "An Act authorizing any taxpayer in any common school district or independent school district to pay one-half or all of such school tax prior to the payment of any other tax that may be collectable on the same roll during the period of time covered by this Act; making provision for the receipt of same by the collector in making proper record thereof and providing for the issuance of official tax receipt or certificate of redemption upon final payment; authorizing, if desired, the making of a special roll showing such school taxes segregated; suspending all laws in conflict herewith, and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Pope offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 1 by adding at the end of Section 2, page 2, the following:

"Provided, nothing herein contained shall repeal, modify or amend House Bill No. 6, or House Bill No. 7, passed at the Fourth Called Session of the Forty-third Legislature of the State of Texas, relating to penalties, interest, and costs on tax obligations."

The amendment was adopted.

By unanimous consent of the House, the caption of the bill was ordered amended to conform to all changes and to the body of the bill.

House Bill No. 1 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1 ON THIRD READING
